 - Monday – Friday 5 a.m. – 9 a.m.
 - Monday – Friday 12 p.m. – 1 p.m. (expanded on 12/3/07)
 - Monday – Friday 5 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.
 - Monday – Friday 9 p.m. – 10:35 p.m.
 - Friday (August – December) 10:35 p.m. – 11 p.m.
 - Saturday 7 a.m. – 8:30 a.m.
 - Saturday – Sunday 5 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.
 - Saturday – Sunday 9 p.m. – 10:30 p.m.
 - Sunday 7 a.m. – 9 a.m.

- b. Breaking News: WBRC had several local disasters in the report period, including coverage of a tornado that killed several children (and a visit by the President to inspect the disaster). There were several amber alerts issued, as well as severe weather warnings, and other emergencies. A complete list of breaking news and cut-ins is attached as Exhibit 1.

- c. Important Local News produced in-studio and aired during the report period include:
 - Rosa Parks Funeral: The entire funeral for Rosa Parks, an Alabama native and an icon of the Civil Rights Movement in Montgomery, was broadcast live.
 - Church Fires: Three Birmingham-area college students set fires to nine rural Alabama churches. WBRC did several live reports as investigators looked for those responsible. (Feb. 3 – March 8, 2006)
 - Mothers of the Movement: A half-hour special report was broadcast to commemorate the lives of Rosa Parks and Coretta Scott King, two natives of Alabama, who had recently passed away.
 - McNair Found Guilty: WBRC produced and aired a special cut-in (approximately 40 minutes) of the jury conviction of a Jefferson County Commissioner, who was considered a Civil Rights icon, of using his political position for personal gain.
 - Officers Shot (1 Killed): Two Fairfield officers responding to a call were shot, killing one female officer and wounding the other. Federal and local law enforcement officers teamed up to locate the suspect. WBRC broadcast descriptions of the suspect and interviewed friends of the victims. The suspect was apprehended the following day, and was subsequently convicted for the crime. (10/23/06)

- Tornado Kills 8 at School: After posting and airing numerous severe weather alerts, a tornado touched down at a school just south of Birmingham and killed eight children. Two days later, WBRC covered the visit by President Bush to the school in Enterprise.

The station also produced in-studio and aired the following programs of local interest in the report period:

WBRC – BIRMINGHAM, AL LOCAL NEWS

a. Stories of local interest:

- Education: Hurricane Katrina created a new career path for one professional musician. He's played with some of the greats in jazz and now thanks to Katrina some Birmingham area students are getting the benefit of his knowledge. FOX6 News Education reporter Sarah Verser gives us a listen from the Alabama School of Fine Arts (11/1/05)
- Health: November 2, 2005 Health: parents are teaching their babies sign language to help the littlest ones communicate. This isn't just necessarily for babies who are deaf. It's also for children who can hear. And parents say, it has countless benefits for the child (11/2/05)
- Consumer: In July, we brought you the story of some "rough riders". Tonight find out how FOX6 On Your Side reporter Ronda Robinson helped smooth things over for a Center Point neighborhood (11/2/05)
- Education: One school is taking on the issue of teen pregnancy. The principal says it's a problem all too familiar among his students. FOX6 News Education reporter Sarah Verser sat in on rehearsals of a play at Erwin High School. And got candid talk from teens about babies having babies (11/3/05)
- Health: Looking for a way to spice up your workout...You can really get things hopping, by trying a brand new workout, that's really catching on. It's all in the shoes... (11/7/05)
- Education: A chess champion is heading for the nationals... And he's just in middle school. He passed up football and basketball for a sport that challenges his mind more than his body. FOX6 News education reporter Sarah Verser takes a look at this "check mate" in tonight's What's Right With Our Schools report (11/8/05)
- Health: Imagine getting a facelift without surgery... It can be done just using thread. A Birmingham woman who wanted a fresher look is getting the procedure done at the Medi Day Spa in Vestavia just in time for her 62nd birthday. FOX6 News reporter Melanie Posey shows us how the procedure works.
- Health: Celebrities like Michael J. Fox, have brought attention to the devastating effects of Parkinson's disease...In recent years, doctors have perfected a surgery to stop the most noticeable symptom of Parkinson's... The shaking...and as you are about to see... After surgery, the patient literally stops shaking, right before our eyes (11/8/05)

- Consumer: A McAdory man's cell phone number was assigned to other Cingular customers nine different times! After hundreds of wrong numbers on his bill he asked FOX6 On Your Side to get the 4-1-1 on his problem. (11/9/05)
- Education: We're proud to say Sarah Verser received a big honor today. The Alabama State Board of Education commended Sarah for her "What's Right With Our Schools" reports which emphasize positive things happening in the classroom. The board also recommended Sarah for the Alabama Association of School Boards' Education Media Honor Roll (11/10/05)
- Consumer: FOX6 On Your Side dishes out the high and low restaurant scores in Jefferson County.
- Health: They are athletes...national champions, in fact, and all call cheerleading their favorite activity. I want to introduce you tonight, to a group of girls, who are members of the bows and arrows cheerleading squad. They all have special needs...intellectual disabilities, but they have plenty to shout about (11/14/05)
- Education: School systems are cracking down on what students wear to class and the reasons for it vary as much as the clothes. Teen counselors say in some cases the clothes are symbols whose meanings are unknown to parents. FOX6 News Education reporter Sarah Verser explains in tonight's At Your School report (11/15/05)
